

EXHALE Bible Discovery ~ Revelation ~ INTRODUCTION

Day 1:

1. What do the words, “prophecy” & “apocalypse” mean? Use the dictionary if needed.
2. Who is believed to be the author of the book of Revelation? What are some facts you know about him?
3. Scan the book of Revelation and write down as many of the “7’s” that are mentioned:

Day 2:

4. Read Daniel 7:13 & 14. Describe your thoughts of the verse and who is being described?
5. Read Daniel 12:1-3. Describe the scene that is written and what stands out to you and why?
6. From Creation to the Cross, the Bible takes us on a 66-book journey. Here are some of the main divisions: History: Genesis - Esther, Poetry: Job-Song of Songs, Prophecy: Isaiah - Malachi, & the New Testament: Matthew - Revelation. Looking at the Old Testament, which division contains the most chapters and why do you think so much is written about this topic?

Day 3:

7. There are many differing opinions, narratives, and beliefs when it comes to the book of Revelation. How as believers, can we remain unified in the message of this book despite the differences?

8. Do some digging to discover where John wrote this book and why he was there:

9. Why do you think the book is called Revelation, not Revelations?

Day 4:

10. Why do you think many people resist studying the book of Revelation? Your own thoughts:

11. Why do you desire to study this book?

Day 5:

12. Do you have any concerns or fears as we begin to study this book? Explain:

13. How will you commit to this study and give this priority in your life? What might you need to put aside in order to complete this study?
